

A vibrant Scarlet Macaw is perched on a weathered wooden post. The bird's plumage is a brilliant mix of red, orange, yellow, and blue, with long red tail feathers extending downwards. It has a large, dark, hooked beak and a white patch around its eye. The background is a lush, out-of-focus green, suggesting a tropical forest setting. A white rounded rectangular frame is superimposed over the image, and a white label with the text 'Parrot Macaw' is positioned to the left of the bird.
